

ASPECTS OF ART

STUDY DAY – MONDAY 30 OCTOBER 2023

10.15am–3.30pm including buffet lunch. Cost £20

The Junction, Christ Church, Chorleywood

PROGRAMME FOR THE DAY

10.15am: Arrival – coffee served

10.30am: 'London's Street Art' From the beautiful to the monstrous, London is home to one of the biggest collections of street art in the world. Some say this city is where it all began. Jackie Clare is an acclaimed Blue Badge guide who will take us on a fascinating tour.

11.45am: Coffee break

12.00 – 'Wish You Were Here: The Seaside Holiday in Art' An insight into the growth of the British seaside resort by art historian Nicholas Reed. It will include lesser known artists who remind us of the happy holidays of our youth, as well as Victorian painters, 20th-century greats such as Picasso, and splendid railway posters of the Art Deco period.

1.15pm – Buffet lunch

1.45pm – 'Old Father Thames: The River in Art' From Canaletto to Whistler, from JMW Turner to Monet, the Thames has always fascinated English and foreign artists alike. Our speaker is Andrew Davies, the renowned lecturer and extra-mural tutor for London, Essex and the Open University.

3pm – Afternoon close
