DATA PROTECTION

Chorleywood u3a is required to comply with General Data Protection Regulations (GDPR) and make clear to you what personal data we hold relating to you and how long we will retain it.

The full Policy Statement is available in hard copy from the Membership Secretary or electronically on the Chorleywood u3a website: www.cw-u3a.org.uk

What use is made of the data ?

The data is used to run Chorleywood u3a and keep its members informed of events, the benefits of being a member and planning of future events and interest groups.

We require your name, address, telephone number and email address (if you have one) in order to be able to contact you and keep you informed of events, planned educational visits and information relating to group activities. This includes the Chorleywood u3a Newsletter and Bulletin sent out at least monthly by the Committee.

The lawful basis for collecting and storing this information is due to the legitimate interest that Chorleywood u3a has in communicating with you as a member.

1. As part of your subscription to Chorleywood u3a you are entitled to a copy of the u3a Trust magazine Third Age Matters. To do this we need to supply your name and address to the distributors.

If you do not wish to receive a copy of the magazine, or simply do not wish us to supply your name and address to the distributors, you may ask us to remove you from the list at any time by contacting the Membership Secretary.

I agree you may supply the distributor with my name and address.

Signed:

2. In order for Group Leaders/Co-ordinators to be able to contact group members we will supply them with a list of their Membership Numbers, Names, Email addresses and Telephone Numbers but if you decide you do not wish us to supply your details to Group Leaders/Co-ordinators you will need to make other arrangements to receive information about any group in which you wish to participate.

I agree you may supply Group Leaders with my name, email address and phone number. Signed:
